Amateur Show Rules and Regulations:

Each club will have a maximum of 12 minutes to complete their show. This includes set up and tearing down any props used on stage. Any club going over the time limit will have 5 points deducted from their score, for every minute or any portion thereof. The Chair Person will keep time and notify each club when their time is up. Total time allotted for the amateur show is 90 minutes. If more than 7 clubs are entered, the time will be divided by the number of clubs entered. The Chair Person will assign rehearsal times. Random drawing will determine the order of appearance. All participants must be affiliated with the entering club. The convention committee's decision is final on all awards.
