Monkey Shoe Pitching Contest Rules and Regulations (also known as Horse Shoes)

A game for 2 players per team, Monkey Shoe Pitching's main object is to ring the pin or throw the monkey shoe as close to the pin as possible. Each player stands at one stake and throws 2 bananas at the other stake. A banana encircling the stake is called a ringer and counts 3 points in scoring.

Contestants get one point for the banana closest to the stake, as long as it is within the width of the banana itself. Games are played to a winning score of 21. The Convention Committee's decision is final on all awards.
